Other Words

Many, if not all, of the words listed below are in the story. Find them and circle or underline them each time they occur. Say each marked word aloud—individually and then in its entire sentence. Look for additional words in the story that contain the target sounds. Mark and say them also.

[ʃ] Sherman, showing, sharp, shook, shed, shame

[tʃ] chose, chair, change, challenge, chicken, stitches

Other Practice Activities

- ❑ Partner Cards—Listening. Practice until you can point to the right card every time.
- ❑ Partner Cards—Speaking. Practice until you can say the contrasting sentences so accurately that your partner points to the right card every time.
- ❑ Story Reading. Practice reading the story aloud. Mark any difficult words. Then record the story on tape.
- ❑ Story Dictation. Write the story as your teacher reads it or as you listen to it on the audiotape.
- ❑ Cloze Reading. Choose some key words in the story and black them out. Then read the entire story aloud. Do this several times.
- Each time black out more words. Continue until most of the story is blacked out and you can tell it without looking at the page very often.*
- ❑ Story Retelling from Skeleton. Black out all the remaining words except those you need in order to remind you of the story line. Then, using just this skeleton, tell the story to your partner or class.
- ❑ Free Story Retelling. Retell the whole story from memory, without looking at your book.
- ❑ Parallel Story. Create your own story similar to the one in this unit.
- ❑ Mini-drama. Make up a skit or do a role play based on the story.

Story

Sherry is a computer whiz. She writes her own programs, and she also buys a lot of computer software. Software is not cheap, and Sherry is very choosy. To make sure she is getting what she wants, Sherry prefers to see software in operation before she buys it. You can't do that in most computer stores or by mail. For
